

Biography for Cristin Schlossberger

Cristin Schlossberger is the Surveyor General of BC, working with the Land Title and Survey Authority of BC (LTSA). Cristin is also appointed as the Boundary Commissioner of BC on the Alberta–British Columbia Boundary Commission.

As Surveyor General, Cristin is responsible for overseeing the province's land survey systems and maintaining the quality and integrity of those systems. The Surveyor General represents the LTSA in the land surveying stakeholder community and collaborates with other statutory roles—such as Director of Land Titles, and Registrar of Land Titles—to establish the policy framework underlying the work at the LTSA. Cristin is also a member of the Board of Management of the Association of BC Land Surveyors.

Prior to joining the LTSA Cristin was employed with a land survey company in Cranbrook from 1999 to 2009 where she gained experience in land development consulting, project management and a wide variety of Land Act, Land Title Act and Strata Property Act surveys. She completed her Canadian Board exams for professional surveyors in 2006, articulated and then received her commission as a BCLS in 2008. Cristin was appointed as Deputy Surveyor General with the LTSA in 2009 and then appointed as Surveyor General in April 2019.
