

First Nation Reserves managed under the Indian Act

This presentation will discuss the management of First Nations lands and resources by the Federal Department of Indigenous Services Canada.

The main legislative framework for this management by Canada, is the Indian Act