

Lands managed by First Nations through Yukon First Nation Self Government Agreements (presented by Les Wilson)

- This presentation will outline the positive approach to business and government that fosters cooperation, collaborative relationships, and is focussed on building up local resources and capacity
- The legislation and agreements in the Yukon Territory (how it differs from southern First Nation Reserve lands)