

The potential of a future First Nation managed Registry System
(presented by Tania Bigstone)

A high level outline of moving away from the Government administered land registry system towards a First Nation administered system